

50th Anniversary

I have been truly lucky by being married to my best friend for over fifty years. Last summer we celebrated our 50th anniversary by renewing our marriage vows. We had a Minister and Priest just like we did in 1969. We followed it up with a cruise to Alaska. It was so much fun I can't wait to celebrate the 75th.

