

Great Britain: I always wanted to walk Hadrian's Wall. So in the summer of 2018 my wife, Bonnie, our children and their families went to England and Scotland. We walked the wall, dined in pubs and learned about what went on in England when the Romans were there. We then traveled to Scotland seeing castles and the just enjoying being with the family.

